

YERCAUD: JEWEL OF THE SOUTH

OVERNIGHT TOUR

After breakfast at Coimbatore hotel (not included), the tour takes you to a beautiful hill station- Yercaud that lies in the Shevaroy hills. It is also known as Jewel of the South and is known for its orange groves, spices and coffee. On the way to Yercaud, you can witness mesmerising views of the forest-plantation mosaics. After reaching Yercaud, hotel check-in and lunch, there is an opportunity for local sight-seeing involving lakes, dams, botanical gardens or hill view-points (to be decided), followed by dinner at hotel and overnight stay.

Next morning takes you to the Shevaroy temple, which is located at 5326 feet- the highest point in Yercaud. It is a cave temple and the deities Lord Shevaroyan and goddess River Cauvery are worshipped by the locals and the tribals. After the visit you come back to hotel for breakfast and leave for Coimbatore. There will be lunch break (not included) en route and local food can be explored.

Duration: 2 days, 1 night
