THE ALIYAR WATERS

DAY TOUR

After breakfast at the Coimbatore hotel, the tour takes you into the spectacular Anamalai hills, situated on the other side of iconic Palakkad gap.

The tour begins with a visit to Masani Amman Temple, unique due to the lying posture of goddess under worship in the temple. Nestled in grasslands, on the Aliyar river against a backdrop of Anamalai.

The temple has an interesting historical story to find out! The tour then takes you to Aliyar dam, in the foothills of Anamalai hills. The dam, built over an amazing length of 2 km is known to support highest level of fish production as compared to any of the reservoirs in India. Continuing the quest of Anamalai hills, the next destination is a natural waterfall, locally known as the Monkey Falls. The place provides with an ideal opportunity to take a dip into the freshwaters of Valparai! Also, do watch out for some monkeys here. You can enjoy lunch at local restaurants (lunch not included) and be back at hotel in Coimbatore for dinner.
